Sunday Gospel Reflection

When I was a young seminarian, I asked a wise old priest how to pray better. He said simply, "Don't lie when you pray." He helped me to see how much energy I waste in trying to appear acceptable to God when I pray. For me, prayer was showing off for God and hiding what was ugly.

It's stunning that the Gospel of Matthew tells us of Jesus, "He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zebulon and Naphthali..." This isn't just the Lord's relocation up north. It's his moving into places of shame and defeat. This region was where the enemy invasion of Israel began centuries before. Jesus left the comfortable confines of Nazareth and sought out a place of darkness, not to bring shame, but to announce the dawning of his light.

When we pray, we usually prefer Jesus to stay put in our little Nazareths — where we feel comfortable, successful, and in control. But he moves. He relocates into the Zebulons and Naphtalis of our shame, embarrassment, fear, and sense of being defeated. The question for us is: will we allow him to take up residence in those places in our prayer time? Will we talk to him honestly about our places of darkness? If we do, we're no longer lying when we pray. — Father John Muir ©LPi

Reflexión del Evangelio

Hay un paso muy importante para obtener la paz y es la actitud de conversión de la persona en su totalidad. Desde el fondo del corazón, girar el pensamiento hacia lo positivo y caminar a la conquista del reino de los cielos. La invitación es lanzada por el mismo Jesús. ¿Quién desea responder a su llamado? En su tiempo respondieron unos hombres sencillos y humildes que, dejando sus redes de inmediato, lo siguieron y deciden caminar con Jesús. Ellos son los primeros modelos a seguir y enseñan lo que significa convertirse. Ahora, la conversión debe llevar a ver dónde se está y hacia donde se quiere llegar. Existen riesgos y se deben asumir con la seguridad de que Dios camina a nuestro paso en el proceso.

El centro del mensaje del Evangelio de hoy es no cerrar el corazón al llamado de Dios. Nunca es tarde para revisar y reorientar la vida hacia el Señor. ¿Cómo me llama Jesús hoy? ¿Qué desea que haga? ¿Quizá me llama al sacerdocio, o vida religiosa? ¿Tal vez a formar una familia? Cualquiera que sea, debo estar atento para responder con firmeza. El salmo de hoy nos anima a dar esta respuesta: "El Señor es mi luz, mi salvación, ¿de quién tendré miedo? El Señor es mi refugio, ¿a quién temeré? (Salmo 26). Señor, se mi baluarte para mi conversión, que sea responsable de las tareas encomendadas en la vida cotidiana para, así, responder a tu llamado diariamente y seguirte, cumpliendo mi deber como padre/madre de familia, como estudiante y trabajador. ¡Que así sea! ©LPi

Why do we do that?

What is the difference between a chastisement and a punishment?

The distinction between chastisement and punishment is, in many ways, a subtle one, but which is still relevant in our Catholic tradition.

First, chastisement is a concept that is grounded in Sacred Scripture. Here, we see chastisement as a response by God to people's actions that is intended to teach a lesson. As St. John Paul II observed, "chastisement appears to be ... a kind of divine pedagogy, in which the last word is reserved to mercy: He scourges and then shows mercy, casts down to the depths of the nether world, and he brings up from the great abyss" (Tobit 13:2). The idea here is that in order to capture our attention or to highlight how we have not lived out our covenant-relationship with God as we should, there are times when God uses events in life to draw us back to the quality of relationship or faith that we should have.

The concept of punishment, however, has a different sense. The Catechism of the Church observes that punishment is the consequence of a damaging action that "has the primary aim of redressing the disorder" and to protect the community and the common good from further damage or harm (see no. 2266). Although we always hope that someone who is being punished for a crime or some other harmful action will learn from their actions, punishment isn't necessarily intended to teach a lesson in the same way that a chastisement is.

Ultimately, how we make the distinction between chastisement and punishment is a matter of discernment. As with almost everything in life, our experiences can be an opportunity for grace — or for something less — depending on how open we are to recognizing the movement of God's Spirit within them. ©LPi

Example of our Faith

St. Marianne Cope

St. Marianne Cope immigrated to the USA from Germany when she was a child. A gifted leader, she oversaw schools, hospitals, and missions during her long life. Most notably, she volunteered to provide care to those outcast with leprosy in Hawaii.

Prayer for St. Marianne Cope's intercession

Lord Jesus, you who gave us your commandment of love of God and neighbor, and identified yourself in a special way with the most needy of your people, hear our prayer. Faithful to your teaching, St. Marianne Cope loved and served her neighbor, especially the most desolate outcast, giving herself generously and heroically for those afflicted by leprosy. She alleviated their physical and spiritual sufferings, thus helping them to accept their afflictions with patience.

Her care and concern for others manifested the great love you have for us. Through her merits and intercession, grant us the favor which we confidently ask of you so that the people of God, following the inspiration of her life and apostolate, may practice charity towards all according to your word and example. Amen. ©LPi
