Statement on the Death of Auxiliary Bishop David O'Connell

Most Reverend José H. Gomez
Archbishop of Los Angeles

February 18, 2023

I am very sad this afternoon to report that our beloved Auxiliary Bishop David O'Connell has passed away unexpectedly. It is a shock and I have no words to express my sadness.

As a priest and later a bishop here in Los Angeles for forty-five years, Bishop Dave was a man of deep prayer who had a great love for Our Blessed Mother. He was a peacemaker with a heart for the poor and the immigrant, and he had a passion for building a community where the sanctity and dignity of every human life was honored and protected.

He was also a good friend, and I will miss him greatly. I know we all will. Please join me in praying for Bishop Dave and for his family in Ireland. May Our Lady of Guadalupe wrap him in the mantle of her love, and may the angels lead him into paradise, and may he rest in peace.

"He was a peacemaker with a heart for the poor and the immigrant, and he had a passion for building a community where the sanctity and dignity of every human life was honored and protected. He was also a good friend, and I will miss him greatly" - Archbishop Jose Gomez

Sunday Gospel Reflection

The Spirit leads Jesus into the desert to be tempted by the devil, and we hear this: "He fasted for forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was hungry." Seems like a questionable battle preparation plan. When I fast, I usually feel grouchy at best, and at worst, like I might pass out from longing for a hamburger. Isn't it better to be well-fed and fully hydrated, especially to face spiritual struggles? Why fast?

This might help. The origin of the word "fast" means to "hold firmly." We still use it that way when we say, "I held fast to my original decision." We human beings are a bundle of desires which vie for our attention: food, drink, comfort, safety, sex, laughter, beauty, and so on. If we can't manage to have firm grip on them, in short order they'll have a firm grip on us. By fasting from our lower desires, we learn to firmly grip on to what is greater. Fasting leads to us to a firmer hold on our body and mind.

Jesus fasts for us. He's showing us that his grace can help us regain this firm hold of our lives, which makes it more difficult for the devil to tempt us. But take it one more step. Fasting also teaches us to finally hold fast to Jesus, the Word of God in flesh. "Man does not live by bread alone," he says, "But by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God." Jesus' fasting reveals his fast hold to the Father in everything. May our fasting help us to grasp ourselves more firmly, and then to hold fast to Jesus alone. — Father John Muir ©LPi

Reflexión del Evangelio

Preparados o no, ya estamos en el Primer Domingo de Cuaresma. Después de Navidad, escuchamos durante seis domingos de Tiempo Ordinario. Durante ese tiempo fuimos preparando el corazón para entrar en la Cuaresma, tiempo litúrgico que comienza con el Miércoles de Ceniza. Es un tiempo de preparación a la Pascua y termina el Jueves Santo, después de mediodía. También, es un tiempo intenso de preparación para los catecúmenos, quienes van a ser bautizados en la Vigilia Pascual. Los ya bautizados se preparan para celebrar la pasión, muerte y resurrección de nuestro Salvador.

La liturgia de hoy nos introduce al misterio de Cristo. Ayuno, limosna y oración son los elementos importantes de este tiempo. Es un tiempo de reflexión y conversión profunda para volver a Dios. El color litúrgico de este tiempo es el morado, color que significa penitencia. El Evangelio nos muestra el ayuno y las tentaciones de Jesús en el desierto. Cuarenta días de ayuno y oración y el rechazo de la tentación. La oración da fortaleza para rechazar al enemigo y el ayuno prepara el espíritu para arrepentirnos con hechos de nuestro enorme egoísmo, y de la falta de respeto a los demás. Es también, tiempo para hacer de la justicia un escudo que lleve a creer en el Evangelio de Jesús. Significa, también, esfuerzo para ajustar el cambio adecuado en nuestra vida a los criterios, enseñanzas y ejemplos de Cristo. Acompañar el recorrido hacia Jerusalén con un corazón dispuesto a morir en la cruz para resucitar gloriosos con Jesús. ©LPi

SoCal Gas & Edison Assistance Catholic Charities

We are pleased to announce that service for SoCal Gas Assistance is now open. Catholic Charities, San Pedro Region is partnered with United Way of Greater Los Angeles to provide assistance to those in need of help paying their SoCal Edison and SoCal Gas bills.

This program is designed to provide financial support to those in our community who are struggling to pay their utility bills. We understand how hard it can be to make ends meet, and we are committed to helping those in need. Through this partnership, we will be able to provide assistance to those in need of help with their utility bills.

We will be able to provide one-time payments to cover a portion of the bills. We are committed to helping those in our community who are in need of assistance.

We encourage anyone who is struggling to pay their utility bills to contact us for assistance: (213) 251-3432 or (562) 949-0937.

Asistencia de SoCal Gas y Edison Caridades Católicas

Nos complace anunciar que el servicio de SoCal Asistencia de Gas ya está abierto. Caridades Católicas, Región de San Pedro está asociada con United Way of Greater Los Angeles para brindar asistencia a quienes necesitan ayuda para pagar sus facturas de SoCal Edison y SoCal Gas.

Este programa está diseñado para brindar apoyo financiero a aquellos en nuestra comunidad que tienen dificultades para pagar sus facturas de servicios públicos. Entendemos lo difícil que puede ser llegar a fin de mes y estamos comprometidos a ayudar a los necesitados. A través de esta asociación, podremos brindar asistencia a aquellos que necesitan ayuda con sus facturas de servicios públicos. Podremos proporcionar pagos únicos para cubrir una parte de las facturas. Estamos comprometidos a ayudar a aquellos en nuestra comunidad que necesitan asistencia.

Alentamos a cualquier persona que tenga dificultades para pagar sus facturas de servicios públicos a que se comuniquen con nosotros para obtener ayuda: (213) 251-3432 o (562) 949-0937.

BIG KIDS CAN (BKC: Ages 9 to 12 years old)

The death of a parent, sibling, or someone close can be devastating for children to be able to cope with their grief. Children experience a range of intense emotions including sadness, fear, guilt and anger. Our purpose at Providence Bereavement Services is to encourage healing and confidence in those experiencing a death of a loved one. We provide grief support with trained bereavement coordinators, social workers and are overseen by licensed professionals.

This five weeks grief support group will provide participants:

- An opportunity to share their feelings • Embrace memories • Have compassionate support • Relate to others who are also grieving • Develop new methods of coping and problem solving

Session Group Meets on Wednesday's

Session 1 - March 1st
Session 2 - March 8th
Session 3 - March 15th

Lenten Reading

Can you recommend some good books for Lenten spiritual reading?

Answer: On more than one occasion, a coach being interviewed about his team--successful or not--will be asked about the next step. The inevitable response includes something about getting back to basics. Reviewing the fundamentals of the sport strengthens performance and builds confidence. The best Lenten reading takes us back to the fundamentals. If Lent is the time for the Church to be on retreat, then we should focus on the texts that help us deepen our understanding of our faith. Spend time reading one of the Gospels and use a Scripture commentary to learn all you can about the passion of Jesus. Read about the lives of the saints, especially your patron saint and that of your parish. Perhaps there is some local candidate for sainthood, like Father Walter Cizek, SJ, who wrote several faith-inspiring books. Finally, you can use the Catechism of the Catholic Church to learn more about the church's teachings and beliefs. The sections on prayer and the Mass are really great reflections. Focusing on the basics really helps us take another step forward in our faith. We have not only a better understanding of what we believe and practice, but also why we believe. With that belief comes the confidence we need to be better, more faithful witnesses to Christ. ©LPi

Ven. William Gagnon

Venerable Brother William Gagnon cared for every victim of war who entered his hospital regardless of military affiliation. A missionary to Vietnam between 1952 and 1972, he is remembered as a true servant leader who loved Jesus and his fellow man.

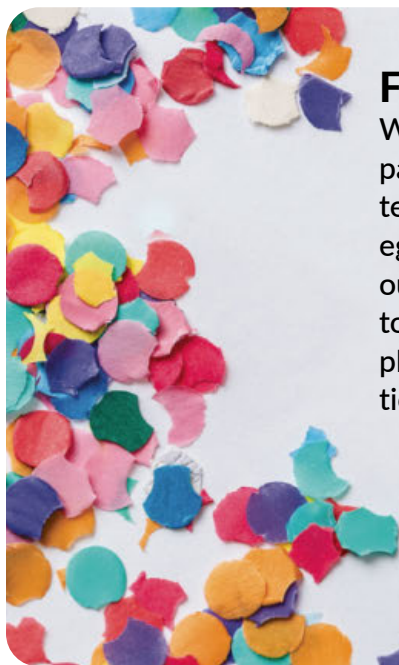

Prayer for Venerable Brother William Gagnon's intercession
Lord, Jesus, your mercy inspired the Venerable William Gagnon, O.H., to live hospitality with the ill, the refugees and the poor. Grant that we may always minister to all suffering people with charity, as did this son of St. John of God. Lord, hear the prayer that we address to you [personal intention] by the intercession of the Venerable William Gagnon, in order that we may be affirmed in our faith and that your glory and the joy of the Church be proclaimed. Amen. ©LPi

Questions of the Week

First Reading: Genesis teaches us that humanity's first sin against God was that of disobedience — they listened to the voice of the snake (the devil) rather than God's voice. What are some ways we can avoid the sin of disobedience in this first week of Lent?

Second Reading: Paul teaches us that through Jesus' obedience to his Father (as opposed to Adam's "transgression"), believers receive the gift of God's grace and "acquittal" from condemnation. How can we all be more mindful of this divine reversal of fortunes during Lent?

Gospel: Each year the Gospel reading for the season of Lent begins with the story of Jesus' temptation in the desert by the devil. What temptations are you willing to confront during the forty days of Lent? ©LPi
