Sunday Gospel Reflection

We hide ourselves and our secrets from God because we are afraid. Even Mary can seem too perfect to approach. The shepherds find the strength to speak to Mary and Joseph at the moment they see the child in the manger. They open their hearts and share what they've experienced. Saint Luke writes of the shepherds, "When they saw this, they made known the message that had been told them about this child."

When I was a college student, I visited Rome. Beggars often approached and said, "Mangia? Mangia?" I didn't speak Italian and thought, "Why are they speaking about the Christmas nativity scene?" My friend said, "Mangia means eat. They're hungry." That's when I realized more deeply than ever before that Mary puts her baby in a place designed for hungry animals to eat.

See that baby in the manger in your heart. Imagine Mary kneeling nearby looking at you with love. She doesn't cling to God for herself. In that cave, from the beginning, she quietly offers her son to hungry souls. The manger means vulnerable self-offering love. That's the sign. This week that same manger opens our hearts to tell Mary about our lives, too. — Father John Muir ©LPi

Reflexión del Evangelio

"Señor Dios, que das origen y plenitud a todo bien, concédenos que, al celebrar, llenos de gozo la solemnidad de la Santa Madre de Dios, así como nos gloriamos de las primicias de su gracia, podamos gozar también de tu plenitud" (Oración Colecta). "Cumplidos los ocho días, circuncidaron al niño y le pusieron el nombre de Jesús, nombre que había indicado el ángel antes de que su madre quedara embarazada". (Lucas 2,21). Celebramos el inicio de un año nuevo y lo celebramos con la alegría de tener una Madre que nos ama. Ella, como Madre de Dios nos bendice y protege. ¡María Madre de Dios ten piedad de nosotros!

"Es mediante María que el Hijo asume la corporeidad. Pero la maternidad de María no se reduce a esto: gracias a su fe, Ella es también la primera discípula de Jesús y esto "dilata" su maternidad. Sera la fe de María la que provoque en Caná el primer signo milagroso, que contribuye a suscitar la fe de los discípulos. Con la misma fe, María está presente a los pies de la cruz y recibe como hijo al apóstol Juan; y finalmente, después de la Resurrección, se convierte en madre orante de la Iglesia sobre la cual desciende con poder el Espíritu Santo en el día de Pentecostés" (Papa Francisco). ¿Qué guardaba María en su corazón en esos días? ¿Qué guardas en tu corazón en estos días de Navidad? ¿Crees que esos sentimientos buenos que llevas dentro estarán presentes durante todo el año? Dialoguemos con María nuestra experiencia de Navidad, y como los pastores, alabemos a Dios por lo que hemos visto y oído durante esta Navidad. ©LPi

Thank you!

Thank you to all the High School Confirmation families and St. Joseph Community for their generosity. We were able to collect over 100 toys to help low income families this holiday season. It warms our hearts to know that there will be more smiling faces on Christmas morning.

From the St. Joseph Youth Center we wish you a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

¡Gracias!

Gracias a todas las familias de confirmación y la comunidad de San José por su generosidad. Pudimos recolectar más de 100 juguetes para ayudar a las familias de bajos ingresos en esta temporada navideña. Nos llena nuestros corazones saber que habrá más caras sonrientes en la mañana de Navidad.

Desde el Centro Juvenil San José les deseamos ¡Feliz Navidad y Próspero Año Nuevo!

DR. KING'S DREAM IS ALIVE

The Beloved Community in the 21st Century

SUNDAY, JANUARY 15, 2023 · 3:00 pm - 4:30 pm

LMU CAMPUS AND LIVESTREAM

A panel discussion on the ethics, the biblical reflection, and the worship of Black Catholics as a beloved community. The LMU Center for Religion and Spirituality invites you to this special seminar copponsored by the African American Catholic Center for Evangelization. First coined by philosopher and writer Josiah Royce, the "Beloved Community" for Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was a main motivator of his philosophy of non-violence.

PANELISTS: Rev. Timothy Dyer, pastor of St. Patrick's Parish in Los Angeles and facilitator, Archdiocesan Anti-Racism Task Force
Prof. Michael Howard, lead faculty, the Presence of Black Catholics in the Church Today and Tomorrow, LMU Center for Religion and Spirituality
Prof. Kim Harris, assistant professor of African American Religious Thought and Practice, LMU Bellarmine College of Liberal Arts
Terry Dicks (moderator), RCIA coordinator, St. Jerome Parish

This event is free and open to the public, both in person and virtual. RSVP is required. Use the QR code to register online.

Liturgical Ministry

Are you called to proclaim the Word of God? Be a singer or worship the Lord through your instrument? All those baptized receive gifts from the Spirit, which can be used in various ways to serve the Lord and each other. Answering the call to become a Lector or a choir member allows you to enter into a deeper relationship with God. If you would like to join our Liturgical ministry, please leave your name, phone number, and ministry you'd like to join with our Parish Receptionist or scan the QR code to fill out a form online.

Lector

Those participating in the Lector Ministry proclaim the Word at Masses offered on weekends, during the week, during special celebrations, and on Holy Days of Obligation. New members are always welcome!

Choir

Those participating in the Music Ministry guide our community in song during our weekend liturgies. Musicians and singers attend a rehearsal, some weekly, others bi-weekly. Experience is always welcome, but do not be discouraged if this is your first time joining a choir. This ministry is open to Youth (High School).

Ministerio litúrgico

¿Estás llamado a proclamar la Palabra de Dios? ¿Ser cantante o música y adorar al Señor a través del canto? Todos los bautizados reciben dones del Espíritu, que se pueden utilizar de diversas maneras para servir al Señor y unos a otros. Responder al llamado para convertirse en Lector o miembro del coro le permite entrar en una relación más profunda con Dios. Si desea unirse a nuestro ministerio litúrgico, deje su nombre, número de teléfono y ministerio al que le gustaría unirse con nuestra recepcionista parroquial o escanee el código QR para completar un formulario en línea.

Lector

Aquellos que participan en el Ministerio Lector proclaman la Palabra en las Misas ofrecidas los fines de semana, durante la semana, durante celebraciones especiales y en los Días Santos de Precepto. ¡Los nuevos miembros son siempre bienvenidos!

Coro

Los que participan en el Ministerio de Música guían a nuestra comunidad en el canto durante nuestras liturgias de fin de semana. Músicos y cantantes asisten a un ensayo semanalmente. La experiencia siempre es bienvenida, pero no se desanime si es la primera vez que se une a un coro. Este ministerio esta abierto para muchachos del noveno grado para arriba y adultos.

Santo Niño

For the Filipino and their families, faith has always been an important aspect in life. Here in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, the Filipino Community has been one of the largest populations in the United States. One of the traditions the Filipinos have brought over is the Feast of the Santo Niño, which is traditionally celebrated every 3rd Sunday of January. The Santo Niño was a gift given to the King and Queen on the day of their baptism. The Santo Niño is one of the oldest images of Christianity in the Philippines, as a symbol of hope and faith. This year the Philippines and the Filipino Catholics across the globe celebrate 500 years of Christianity in the Philippines.

We invite you to join us and our Filipino community to our Annual Santo Niño Mass on January 15 at 10:45am. There will be a small fellowship after Mass.

Did you know?

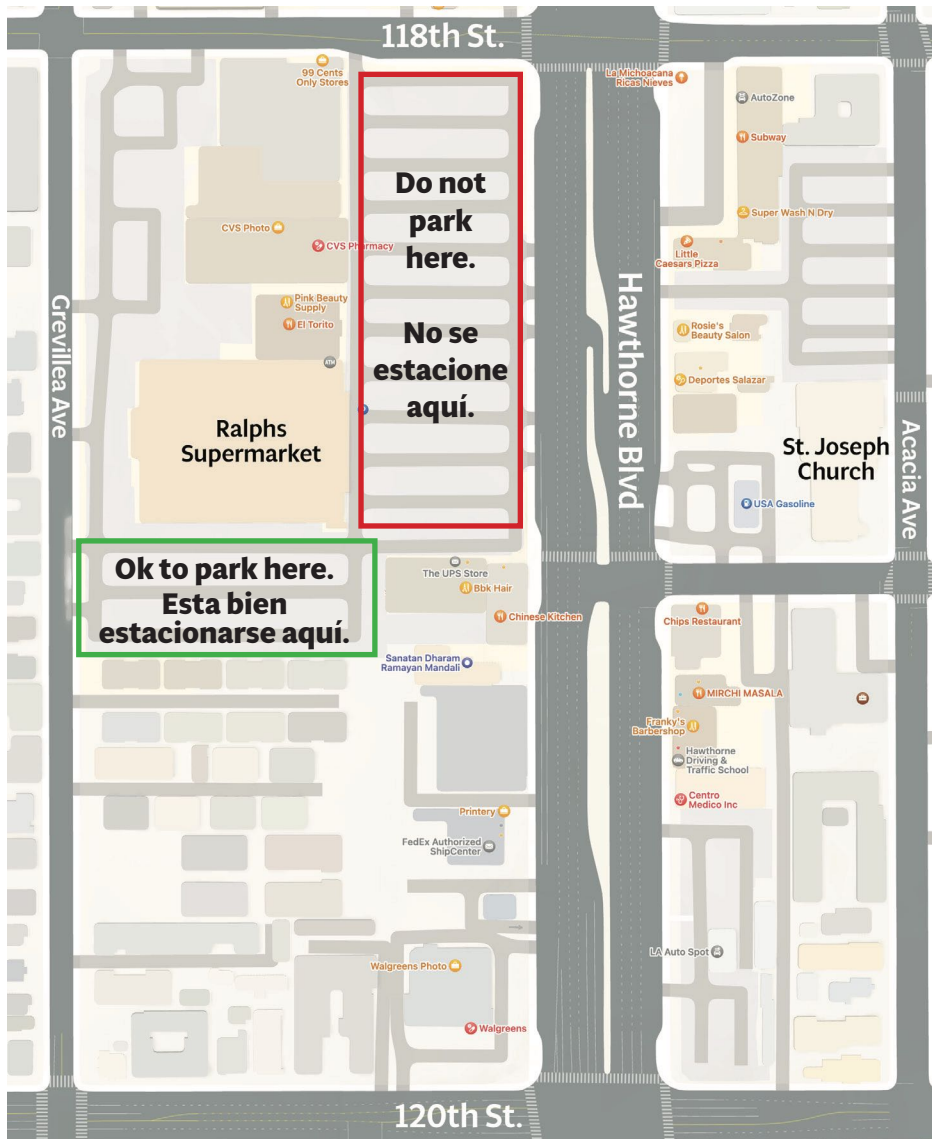

What to do when a child discloses abuse

When a child discloses abuse, the first thing to remember is to stay calm. Coming forward takes incredible courage and trust; it is usually very hard for children to open up. If a child discloses abuse to you, it is important to listen fully to what he or she is saying. Limit your questions to short, simple queries: What happened? Who did this? Where? When? Let the child know you want to help and coming forward is the right thing to do. As soon as possible, make a report with a child protection agency in your state. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article, "When a Child Discloses" on lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

¿Sabia Usted?

Qué hacer cuando un niño revela abuso

Cuando un niño revela un abuso, lo primero es permanecer en calma. Dar ese paso requiere una valentía y confianza increíbles; por lo general es muy difícil para un niño sincerarse. Si un niño le revela que fue abusado, es importante que escuche atentamente lo que él o ella está diciendo. Limite sus preguntas a consultas breves y sencillas: ¿Qué pasó? ¿Quién hizo esto? ¿Dónde? ¿Cuándo? Hágale saber al niño que quiere ayudar y que haber dado el paso de contarle es lo correcto. Tan pronto como sea posible, reporte el incidente a una agencia de protección infantil en su estado. Para más información, lea el artículo en inglés en VIRTUS®, "When a Child Discloses" (Cuando un niño revela) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.
