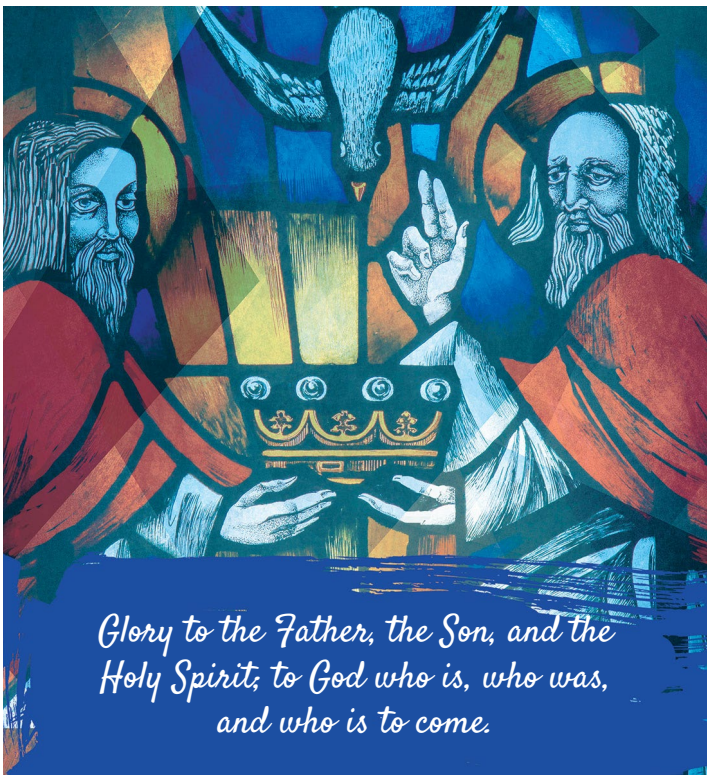
Why do we do that?

Question: If it isn't only for people who are dying, when should someone receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick?

Answer: One of the unfortunate realities in the Church today is that so few people understand the meaning and value of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, largely because so many people still mistakenly think of this sacrament as "Last Rites" or "Extreme Unction."

In his life and ministry, Jesus healed the sick. In this sacrament, the Church continues the healing mission of Jesus and, in hope, prays that God will grant healing to the person who is suffering. But even if there is no physical healing, the sacrament offers spiritual healing through the Holy Spirit's gifts of peace and courage. And so, anyone who is living with serious illness (including emotional or psychological illness) and the elderly are encouraged to celebrate this sacrament when it is needed.

The ritual for Anointing of the Sick does also include special prayers and blessings for those who are facing death, including viaticum (communion given to the dying, trusting that the Lord Jesus will be their companion along the way, as they make their final journey). ©LPi



Father Greg's Reflection

"Baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."
Mt 28:16-20

The Holy Trinity is the core belief of our Catholic Faith. God is love. One person cannot love because love is a relationship between two persons, but love is created so that the two become one and is fruitful; thus, we say that from the Love of Father for Son flows the Holy Spirit. To the degree that we love, we know the wonders of God and self. Our human experience teaches us that when we love, we:

1. know the other person
2. accept the other person as he is
3. we want the best for the other person
4. respond to his authentic needs.

We are here in this life to learn how to love and be in communion with the Lord, loving as He has loved us. He forgives us when we fail to live this truth, and having been forgiven much; we can love greatly. People try to understand God and His Way. Some say that they do not believe in God, yet if they love another, they have begun to understand the wonder of God's Love. The love that parents have for their children reflects God's Love for each of us. Take time today and reflect on the wonder of love in your own family. Think that God so loved the world that He sent His only Son to save us from our self-condemnation. Reflect on the belief that God is Love, a community of love, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Look at yourself and see how you have been created in the image of God, for and by His Love.

Reflexión del Padre Greg

"Bautizándolas en el nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo". Mt 28, 16-20

La Santísima Trinidad es la creencia central de nuestra fe católica. Dios es amor. Una persona no puede amar porque el amor es una relación entre dos personas, pero el amor se crea para que los dos se conviertan en uno. Por eso decimos que del Amor del Padre por el Hijo fluye el Espíritu Santo. En la medida en que amamos, conocemos las maravillas de Dios y de nosotros mismos. Nuestra experiencia humana nos enseña que cuando amamos, nosotros:

1. conozca a la otra persona
2. aceptar a la otra persona como es
3. queremos lo mejor para la otra persona
4. responder a sus auténticas necesidades.

Estamos aquí en esta vida para aprender a amar y estar en comunión con el Señor, amando como Él nos ha amado. Él nos perdona cuando fallamos en vivir esta verdad, y habiendo sido perdonados mucho; podemos amar mucho. La gente trata de comprender a Dios y Su Camino. Algunos dicen que no creen en Dios, pero si aman a otro, han comenzado a comprender la maravilla del Amor de Dios. El amor que los padres tienen por sus hijos refleja el amor de Dios por cada uno de nosotros. Tómate un tiempo hoy y reflexiona sobre la maravilla del amor en tu propia familia. Piensa que Dios amó tanto al mundo que envió a Su único Hijo para salvarnos de nuestra condenación. Reflexiona sobre la creencia de que Dios es Amor, una comunidad de amor, el Padre y el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo. Mírate a ti mismo y ve cómo has sido creado a imagen de Dios, para y por Su Amor.

VIRTUS®

Fostering caring in children. Raising kind children is hard work, but critical to their success as strong Catholic adults. Parents can model caring and kindness in the home, doing charity work, volunteering, helping friends and family. Get your children involved with your efforts and encourage them to make their own acts of kindness. Recognize and praise kindness when you see it, but without rewarding it as "extra special" behavior. Making kindness a part of your everyday family life will help your children build habits that grow over time. For more information, request a copy of the VIRTUS article "Fostering caring in children" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

Fomentar el cuidado de los niños. Criar niños amables es un trabajo duro, pero fundamental para su éxito como adultos católicos fuertes. Los padres pueden modelar el cuidado y la bondad en el hogar, haciendo obras de caridad, haciendo voluntariado, ayudando a amigos y a familiares. Permita que sus hijos participen en sus esfuerzos y anímelos a realizar sus propios actos de bondad. Reconozca y elogie los actos de bondad de sus hijos cuando ocurran, pero sin resaltarla como un comportamiento "extra especial". Hacer que la bondad sea parte de su vida familiar diaria ayudará a sus hijos a desarrollar hábitos que crecerán con el tiempo. Saint Boniface

Boniface, known as the apostle of the Germans, was an English Benedictine monk who gave up being elected abbot to devote his life to the conversion of the Germanic tribes. Two characteristics stand out: his Christian orthodoxy and his fidelity to the pope of Rome.

How absolutely necessary this orthodoxy and fidelity were is borne out by the conditions Boniface found on his first missionary journey in 719 at the request of Pope Gregory II. Paganism was a way of life. What Christianity he did find had either lapsed into paganism or was mixed with error. The clergy were mainly responsible for these latter conditions since they were in many instances uneducated, lax and questionably obedient to their bishops. In particular instances their very ordinations were questionable.

These are the conditions that Boniface was to report in 722 on his first return visit to Rome. The Holy Father instructed him to reform the German Church. The pope sent letters of recommendation to religious and civil leaders. Boniface later admitted that his work would have been unsuccessful, from a human viewpoint, without a letter of safe-conduct from Charles Martel, the powerful Frankish ruler, grandfather of Charlemagne. Boniface was finally made a regional bishop and authorized to organize the whole German Church. He was eminently successful.

In the Frankish kingdom, he met great problems because of lay interference in bishops' elections, the worldliness of the clergy and lack of papal control.

During a final mission to the Frisians, Boniface and 53 companions were massacred while he was preparing converts for confirmation.

In order to restore the Germanic Church to its fidelity to Rome and to convert the pagans, Boniface had been guided by two principles. The first was to restore the obedience of the clergy to their bishops in union with the pope of Rome. The second was the establishment of many houses of prayer which took the form of Benedictine monasteries. A great number of Anglo-Saxon monks and nuns followed him to the continent, where he introduced the Benedictine nuns to the active apostolate of education. © Franciscan Media
